

How To Write A Funeral Program

Wondering how to write a funeral program?

The funeral program can be created by the funeral home or the church, however many of our visitors express surprise at how consoling it is to create the funeral program themselves. Searching for a favorite poem, selecting that special song, finding a favorite Bible passage or reading, all contribute to creating a Celebration of Life that truly reflects your beloved.

If you are wondering how to write a funeral program, with some help from Creative-Funeral Ideas.com, you'll find it easier, and you'll be able to create a program that expresses how unique your loved one was.

The program typically includes:

- Photo of the deceased
- The name of the deceased
- Date of Birth and Place of Birth
- Date of Death and Place of Death
- Date and Time and Place of Celebration of Life
- Name of Person who is Officiating

For a non-religious celebration of life, things to consider including in the funeral program are:

- Poem or favorite reading
- Short Biography of the deceased
- Names of the Survivors
- Music and name of Soloists
- Name of person/persons giving The Eulogy
- Photo or Video Tribute
- Thank you from the family for sharing this day with them.
- Internment
- Details of reception afterwards; Time and Place

If a religious ceremony, your minister will discuss with you:

- Organ Prelude
- Invocation
- Bible Reading
- Hymn Selection
- Name of Person or Persons Giving The Eulogy
- Name of Vocal Soloist
- Benediction
- Postlude Music
