

Sally Kollberg

Ah Momma, I will see you again
in the garden of paradise.
I will talk to you everyday
as I walk through the woods
or look into the night sky.
You are my light,
my best friend.

"Sweet Sally"
is the name you earned
because you are the kindest,
sweetest person in all the world.
Your smiling brought joy
and your ever-happy nature
nudged others be happy too.

You are the most beautiful person,
inside and out.
Always giving,
sacrificing for everyone you meet.

An artist in paint and flowers.
Your love for the nature's garden
lives on in us.

Sweden lost an angel when your pappa
decided to gift us here, with you.
Your high school sweetheart misses you
you have lived a true love story.

You fought a valiant fight with grace
and dignity
throughout your days.
Your bravery and strength
sustains us all, even now.
Your two beautiful grandchildren
will carry on your legacy...
Love never dies, True light never fades.
