

Theresa Archipolo

*A mother of fourteen children
You worked hard for your family, we know
And your incredible strength
Forever remains
Though your time has come to let go*

*We are left with the good times to treasure
The cigarettes and coffee you enjoyed
And your love of cartoons
As they made you laugh
And that laughter could fill any void!*

*Watching 'Wheel of Fortune' made you think
And those classical movies too
Where the love and beauty
Filled you with joy
Just a few of our memories of you!*

*Your favourite holiday was Christmas time
Decorations so beautifully done
Everyone together
With laughter ringing out
So noisy and crazy, but fun!*

*Your memory will always be cherished
And your lessons in life well received
And it hurts that you're gone
But your battle is done
And the comfort of peace, now achieved*

*But one lesson you taught, will always remain
That's the greatest importance of life!
Through the good times and bad
Your positivity prevailed
Raising our spirits from strife*

*Our Angel, our inspiration
Your lessons so gratefully learned
Your laughter is heard
As our Angel takes flight
With your wings, so gracefully earned*
